

#14 Pore Jud is Daid

Jud Fry

JUD:

beat a heart as big as all out - doors. As big as all out - doors. Jud Fry loved his fel-low man. He loved his fel-low man.

CURLY: JUD:

CURLY: (speaks) And he loved little children.
 He loved the birds of the forest He loved ev'body and ev'thin' and the beasts of the field, He loved in the world! On'y whenever the mice and the vermin in the barn, let on, so nobody ever and he treated the rats like equals, 8 knewed it!

30 38

CURLY:
Pore Jud is daid. Pore

JUD: Miles a-round. CURLY:

Jud Fry is daid! His frinds'll weep and wall for miles a-round The dais-ies in the dell, Will give out a diff'rent smell, Be - cuz por Jud is un-der-neath the ground. Pore Jud is daid, A can-dle lights his haid, He's

Start JUD:

CURLY: Wood - JUD:

CURLY: Wood - JUD:
lay - in' in a caw - fln made of wood. And folks are feel - in' sad Cuz they use - ter treat him bad, And

CURLY: Good. End

CURLY: Good. End
now they know their friend has gone fer good.